Does Alaska Airlines Still Charge a Change Fee in 2026?

No -- Alaska Airlines permanently eliminated change fees on standard Economy, Premium Economy, Business, and First Class domestic and international tickets. This change, implemented in 2020-2021, remains in effect in 2026. The only fare class that cannot be changed is Saver. However, 'no change fee' does not mean 'free.' You may still owe a fare difference if the new flight is priced higher than your original ticket. Understanding the distinction between change fees and fare differences is critical to accurately estimating your total cost. Call 1-844-833-0072 for an instant fee assessment on your specific ticket.

What Is the Difference Between a Change Fee and a Fare Difference?

A change fee was a flat penalty charged by the airline simply for making any modification to your booking -- typically $150-$200 per change regardless of the new flight price. Alaska Airlines has eliminated this fee. A fare difference is the gap between what you originally paid and what the new flight costs at the time you make the change. If your original ticket was $300 and the new flight is $400, you pay $100 fare difference -- but zero change fee. If the new flight costs $250, you owe nothing and receive a $50 wallet credit. The fare difference is not a penalty -- it is simply the market price adjustment.

1-844-833-0072 -- Change fee = $0. Fare difference = market price gap. Call to check yours.

How Much Does Same-Day Flight Change Cost on Alaska Airlines?

Alaska Airlines offers two same-day change options with different costs. Same-Day Standby is completely free on all fare classes including Saver. You are placed on a waitlist and board a different same-day departure if a seat opens. No cost, but no guarantee. Same-Day Confirmed Change guarantees you a seat on a specific different flight departing the same day. This costs $50. However, free for MVP Gold and above receive same-day confirmed changes for free. If you are not sure which option to choose, call 1-844-833-0072 -- the agent can check seat availability on the next departure and recommend whether standby is likely to work or whether a confirmed change is worth the cost.

1-844-833-0072 -- Same-day standby = free. Confirmed = $50. Call to check seat availability.
